OVERTURE

An OVERTURE introduces the themes of a musical composition. Likewise, the Overture collection introduces the architecture, music, resilience, and enduring spirit of Historic Overtown through pattern, color, and storytelling.

The collection features eight hand-illustrated landmarks from Historic Overtown, each reimagined as a musical instrument. The Historic Ebenezer Methodist Church becomes a saxophone, the D.A. Dorsey House a boombox, the Dr. Samuel H. Johnson X-Ray Clinic a vintage microphone, the Historic Ward Rooming House a xylophone, the Historic Black Police Precinct Courthouse & Museum a grand piano, the Dunns-Josephine Hotel bongos, the Historic Lyric Theater a tuba, and St. John Institutional Missionary Baptist Church a drum set. Together, they form a visual symphony celebrating one of Miami's most culturally significant neighborhoods.

COLORWAYS

Prelude (Gray)

The opening movement. Inspired by Overtown's earliest days, Prelude honors the neighborhood's architectural foundations and the pioneers who established one of Miami's most culturally significant communities.

Rhythm (Red)

The heartbeat of Overtown. Rhythm celebrates the neighborhood's vibrant music, enduring resilience, and rich cultural legacy. Inspired by the jazz clubs, performers, and community spirit that made Overtown legendary, it honors a place where creativity and connection have always flourished.

Harmony (Teal)

A celebration of music as a unifying force. Harmony reflects the jazz clubs, theaters, and gathering places where Black musicians created extraordinary music and welcomed audiences from every background, making Overtown one of the cultural capitals of the South.

Revival (Purple)

The final movement looks forward. Revival represents Overtown's renaissance—its ongoing restoration, renewed investment, and the unwavering commitment of residents, artists, entrepreneurs, and advocates who continue to fight for its future. Purple also conveys dignity, creativity, and vision.
